

brought to you by the Friends of West Hampstead Library - July 4 2018

OVER HERE!

the Americans of West Hampstead - a Fourth of July celebration

Tonight's panellists:

Alice Leader: teacher and novelist born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, lived in London since 1975, taught at the American School for over 40 years, still running classes on British culture and history in NW London, and writing novels for teenagers and adults

Will Lashley: film maker, writer, editor born Palo Alto, California, grew up in West Virginia and lived in New York City for 25 years prior to moving to London in 2005; co-runs the monthly Locally Sourced events at the Alliance, NW6

Naomi Shragai: writer, psychotherapist and executive coach a self-confessed Jewish Valley Girl from LA before making her way to Santa Monica, moved to London in 1986, writes for the Financial Times with a focus on the psychology of business

Chair: Simon Inglis

Cultural consultant: Paula Tevis

Musical curator: Mark Katz

thanks also to Ted Booth, Jody Graham Tal Gurevich & Janet Pedder

www.fowhl.org
FriendsofWHL@gmail.com @FoWHLNW6

FoWHL's events are free to all, but hey guys, donations would be much appreciated!