BIRDS

+ BEES

THURSDAY JULY 18 7.30pm
at West Hampstead Library

Ever wondered where all London's parakeets come from? Fresh from their investigations in the capital's parks, cemeteries, riverbanks and wastelands, author Nick Hunt & photographer Tim Mitchell air the favourite theories in a new book, The Parakeeting of London – an adventure in gonzo ornithology.

Joining them will be apiarist Alison Benjamin. In The Good Bee – a celebration of bees and how to save them, Alison reveals the complexities of bee behaviour, the part bees play in the natural world, and how they are under threat.

Copies of both brilliant books will be on sale.

FREE ENTRY but please book via EVENTBRITE
